Information on Prevention of Money Laundering (PMLA)

Background:

In order to combat Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing in the securities and financial market, the Government of India has enacted the Prevention of Money Laundering (PMLA) Act, 2002 and the same was notified on July 1, 2005. In accordance with the said Act, each and every intermediary registered with the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) is required to comply with PMLA requirements.

Money Laundering:

Money laundering involves disguising financial assets so that they can be used without detection of the illegal activity that produced them. Through money laundering, the launderer transforms the monetary proceeds derived from criminal activity into funds with an apparently legal source. The laundered proceeds enter into the financial system through normal sources and intermediaries registered with SEBI may unwittingly get exposed to a potential criminal activity while undertaking its day-to-day business transactions.

Brief details of the PMLA policy:

Prabhudas Lilladher Pvt. Ltd. (PL) being an intermediary registered with SEBI as a stock broker, depository participant and portfolio manager has formulated a comprehensive PMLA policy to comply with anti-money laundering directives issued by SEBI. Adherence with this policy will prevent PL from being used as a medium, intentionally or unintentionally, for effecting money laundering activities. Brief details of the said policy are mentioned below:

- Client Acceptance Procedure: Every account of a client shall be opened only after proper due diligence of the client is effected by verifying the Know Your Client (KYC) documents as prescribed by SEBI/BSE/NSE/MCX-SX/ CDSL and after carrying out in-person verification. - At the time of account opening, Clients are required to furnish original documents for the purpose of verification. It is pertinent to note that the Clients are expected to update their financial details frequently and at least on annual basis. In case of non-individual clients (viz. Corporate, Partnership Firm, Trust, Hindu Undivided Family, Society, etc., in addition to the aforesaid, copy of PAN card, POI and POA of Promoters, Directors, Partners, Trustees, Karta, Members, etc. to be submitted.
- Client Due Diligence (CDD): PL shall obtain sufficient information from the clients in order to identify the person who beneficially owns and controls accounts. Precaution shall also be taken that no account is opened in a fictitious / benami name or on an anonymous basis. No account shall be opened where PL is unable to apply appropriate CDD measures/KYC norms.
- Categorisation of clients: PL shall accept clients based on the risk the clients are likely to pose. For this purpose, PL shall categorise the clients under low-risk, medium-risk and high-risk category based on appropriate CDD process.
- Record keeping and retention of records: All the documents submitted by the clients at the time of account opening and subsequent thereof will be preserved for a period of 10 years after closure of the account.
- Monitoring and reporting of suspicious transactions: PL shall monitor all the transactions executed by its clients. If PL finds any irregularity in the transactions, it shall seek an explanation from the client in this regard. The transaction and explanation given by the Client will be analysed by the Principal Officer. If the Principal Officer decides that the transactions should be reported to Financial Intelligence Unit - India (FIU-IND) then the same will be reported to FIU-IND.
