Market Preview

Nifty disaster continues

Nifty witnessed another major crash losing almost 500 points to close near the 23150 zone with bears now beginning to take control of the bulls. BankNifty tanked once again to almost touch the important support zone of 53500 level which looks now very much vulnerable. The market breadth was very much weak with the advance decline indicating a ratio of almost 1:6 at close.

Market Forecast

Nifty daily range 22800 - 23400

Nifty, continue to crash with intensified selling pressure with the situation taking a toll on the market opening the fresh gates on the downside having 22800 and 22000 zone as the next important support zones to be watched for in the coming days. The index is falling like nine pins with the sentiment shattered and pessimism creeping in among the market players. As mentioned earlier, the index would need a decisive move past the 24400 zone to establish conviction and clarity.

BankNifty in a similar pattern continue to tank and has once again lost almost 1400 points during the session arriving near the previous major low made at 53500 zone which would be the crucial and major support zone to be watched for in the coming sessions, failing which can trigger for another fresh round of selling pressure weakening the trend after a long time. A significant revival is much needed and would need to close above the 56600 zone to expect for some stability and conviction.

The support for the day is seen at 22800 levels, while the resistance is seen at 23400 levels. BankNifty would have the daily range of 53000-54500 levels.
