Market Preview

Nifty losing strength; 23500 crucial zone

Nifty continue to slide further with profit booking visible and has breached below the important support of 23800 level decisively weakening the bias and sentiment. BankNifty continue to remain sluggish sliding further and would have the important support near the 56000 zone which needs to be sustained failing which there can fresh selling pressure in the coming sessions. The market breadth was slightly on the weaker side with the advance decline indicating a ratio of 4:5 at close.

Market Forecast

Nifty daily range 23500 - 23800

Nifty once again opened on a weak note and continue to slide further with the trend under threat and a decisive breach below the important 23000 zone shall weaken the trend to trigger for fresh selling pressure in the coming days. The index would have the next major support positioned near the 23000 zone and at the same time, on the upside, a decisive breach above the 24000 zone is necessary to improve the bias and thereafter, expect for further rise.

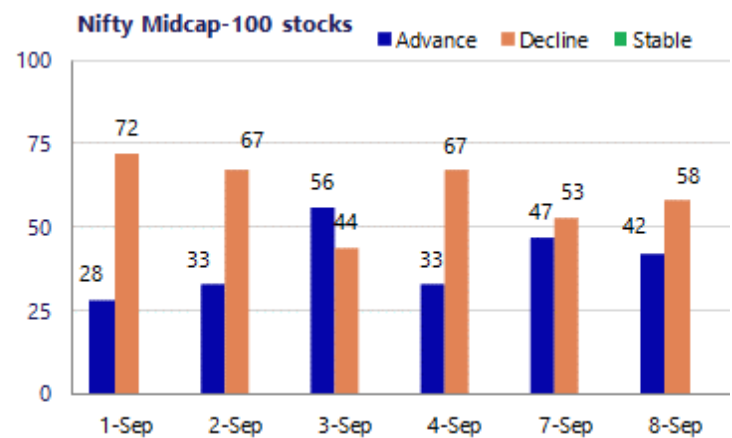

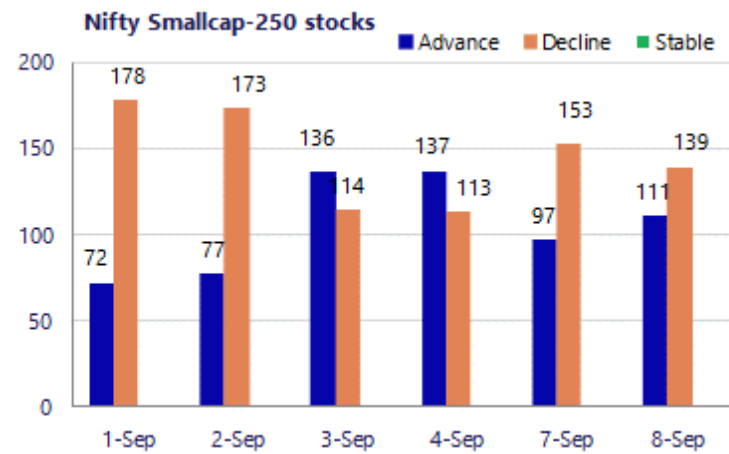

BankNifty with profit booking witnessed has slipped below the 57000 zone with bias turning weak anticipating for further slide in the coming sessions having the important 100-period MA at 56500 zone as the crucial near-term support whereas the 56000 level positioned as the major base area which needs to be sustained to maintain the trend intact. At the same time, on the upside, a decisive breach above the 200-period MA at 57400 level is necessary to improve the bias as of now.

The support for the day is seen at 23500 levels, while the resistance is seen at 23800 levels. BankNifty would have the daily range of 56200-57400 levels.
