Market Preview

Nifty retests previous low of 22200 zone

Nifty witnessed another fresh round of selling pressure scaling the previous low of 22200 zone and ended the session near the 22420 level with bias turning weak day by day. BankNifty sustained the level near 55000 zone for the initial part but fizzled out in the second half to end near the 54450 level. The market breadth was very weak with the advance decline indicating a ratio of 1:3 at close.

Market Forecast

Nifty daily range 22200 - 22600

Nifty witnessed another day of free fall with heavy selling pressure to almost touch the previous low made near 22180 zone and finally amid some volatility managed to close just above the 22400 zone with the overall bias and sentiment shattered as of now. The index would have the crucial support near the 22200 zone and thereafter, has the major and important level near the 21800 zone which needs to be sustained, failing which the overall trend would turn weak and can invite for further intensified selling pressure. Some revival cannot be ruled out but need to sustain above the 23000 zone.

BankNifty has been resilient till the lunch session sustaining near the 55000 zone but gave in with profit booking witnessed and closed near the 54450 zone with consolidation visible since the past 3 sessions with the bias maintained with a cautious approach. As mentioned earlier, the index would have the crucial and major support positioned near the 53000 zone which needs to be sustained failing which the trend would turn weak. At the same time, on the upside, a decisive move above the hurdle at 55800 level is necessary to improve the bias and establish conviction for further progress.

The support for the day is seen at 22200 levels, while the resistance is seen at 22600 levels. BankNifty would have the daily range of 53800-55200 levels.
